

Distractor: false public sector only scope

This false briefing says the AI Act only applies to public authorities and never applies to startups or private companies. This is wrong. The AI Act applies to providers, deployers, importers and distributors under its scope rules, including private undertakings.